ENGLISH THEATRE

CRAZY
QUILT

Program

THREE DAYS ONLY

MON., TUES., WED., JANUARY 11, 12, 13

Matinee Wednesday

The new annual edition of "Earl Carroll Vanities" is coming to the English Theatre for three days only, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 11, 12, 13, with matinee Wednesday.

While the Earl Carroll Theatre was being demolished last season to make way for the present new theatre, this eighth edition of "Vanities" was produced at the New Amsterdam Theatre, where the engagement continued for more than seven months.

Staged in sixty scenes with the original New York production and company of one hundred, this is a larger production than any previous edition.

More than twenty principal comedians include Herb Williams, Jack Benny and Chaz Chase. And the show girls and chorus beauties number fifty-six, among whom are some of the most beautiful girls in the world.

Some of the most elaborate scenic spectacles, gorgeous costume numbers and novel light effects ever staged are presented in this year's "Vanities."

The dances and ensembles were staged by Ned McGurn, the dialogue is by Eddie Welsh and Eugene Conrad and was staged by Charles Ashley.

The music and lyrics are by Jay Gorney, E. Y. Harburg, Harold Arlen and Ted Kohler.

The settings were designed by Hugh Willoughby and the costumes by Charles Le Maire and Florence Weber. The entire production is under the personal direction of Earl Carroll.
